Discount Fares Program

We offer discounted fare programs for qualifying riders: Reduced Fare (Seniors, Active and Reserve Military ID Holders not in uniform and Riders with Disabilities or on Medicare) and Equifare (qualifying low-income riders. ONLY available using Umo or CapMetro Reloadable Fare Card). Visit capmetro.org/rfid or capmetro.org/equifare for details on eligibility and how to apply.

Customers with Access ID

Access customers may ride other bus and rail services at the reduced rate and they can setup autopay through the Access RiderApp or RiderWeb. Visit capmetro.org/access-fares for details. To receive reduced fares on bus or rail, tap the Access ID card at the target area on the farebox when you board the vehicle. Access monthly passes are valid for use on all CapMetro bus and train services at no additional cost.

When using the Access shared-ride paratransit service (see page 29), qualified customers are charged a separate rate.

Take Care of Your Pass & Card

The magnetic strip or chip on your paper passes and CapMetro Reloadable Fare Card contain important information. If it's damaged, the farebox won't be able to read it, and you'll have to pay your fare with exact change and get a replacement pass or card at the CapMetro Transit Store in downtown Austin.

CapMetro Reloadable Fare Card

You can use a Reloadable Fare Card to pay your fare. You'll never pay more than the cost of a day pass in a service day or a monthly pass in a calendar month. Pickup a card at the Transit Store. More info at capmetro.org/fares

Cash to Mobile

You can purchase your fare with cash at participating store locations, including drug stores, dollar stores and gas stations around the region. Your cash will be loaded into a digital wallet, in your app account, there is a $1 minimum.
