Capital Metro (www.capmetro.org)

Capital Metro is Austin's regional public transportation provider. Capital Metro connects people, jobs and communities by providing high-quality and sustainable transportation choices to Central Texans. The agency provides close to 33 million boardings every year and enough rides each weekday onboard its buses, trains, paratransit and vanpool vehicles to fill Darrell K. Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium and Disch-Falk Field combined. As the region’s transportation leader, Capital Metro is driving progress and investing in mobility with high-capacity transit solutions. Capital Metro is a financially sound and fiscally responsible agency, winning the highest rating for financial transparency from the Texas Comptroller for the fifth straight year.

Throughout its network, Capital Metro provides:

- 61 Metro Bus routes, two MetroRapid routes, seven MetroExpress routes and 12 UT shuttle routes
- 3,000 bus stops throughout Central Texas
- MetroRail passenger rail service between the City of Leander and downtown Austin
- Nine MetroRail stations located along a 32-mile line
- MetroAccess service for passengers with disabilities
- Vanpool coordination through RideShare service
- Freight rail service
- Seven MetroBike shelters at MetroRail and two major transit centers
- Cycling partnership programs
- Mobile ticketing (app)

Endeavor Real Estate Group (www.endeavor-re.com)

Founded in 1999, Endeavor Real Estate Group, Ltd. (EREG) is a full-service commercial real estate company headquartered in Austin, Texas. From developing Austin's largest outdoor shopping center to owning and managing high-rise office buildings in downtown Austin, EREG creates value through the management, leasing, development and acquisition of mixed-use, retail, office, and industrial properties. Since its inception in 1999, EREG has developed and/or acquired 13M square feet of commercial real estate and currently handles the leasing and management of approximately 7M square feet of office, industrial and retail space.

The EREG brand has been created through thoughtful planning, design, and delivering an end product that is distinguishable from the competition and then is reinforced through great customer service. EREG’s work in Central Texas has created a reputation and a brand that both customers and city officials alike are proud to have in their communities. We live where we work and we shop where we build.
About Columbus

Columbus has developed more than 15,000 apartments, condominiums and townhomes, the majority of which have been in urban areas in such diverse neighborhoods as Uptown Dallas, Uptown Denver, Midtown Houston, Downtown Austin, Downtown Plano, the Museum District in Fort Worth, and the Roosevelt Historic District in Phoenix. Columbus has also been a leader in creating walkable mixed-use neighborhoods with significant involvement in award-winning projects such as Legacy Town Center, Addison Circle, and The Domain. Working with the City of Plano and DART, Columbus built the light rail station along with 450 apartments and 100,000 sf of neighborhood retail in Plano’s historic downtown.

EREG, Columbus, and Bury have worked together on seven mixed-use projects in Austin, Texas. Together they have developed 770 multi-family units and 30,000 square feet of retail. They currently have 875 multifamily units designed and permitted. They are well versed in Austin’s desire to meet community goals, such as multiple residential choices, affordable housing and retail offerings to match the needs of neighborhoods and communities. They maintain a successful track record of creating projects that remain true to Austin community values, and Plaza Saltillo will be no different.

Additional Partners

Torti Gallas and Partners: Master planned and conceptual architects

Michael Hsu Office of Architecture: Local design architect

JHP Architecture: Residential design architect

Bury: Civil engineering

TBG: Landscape architecture

Pink Consulting: Community outreach