PURCHASE

Capital Metro offers varying pass options to fit every rider’s needs — from a single ride to 31 days of service. Buy your fare based on Capital Metro’s service categories: Local or Commuter.
Reduced fares program

Reduced fares are available for qualifying riders. Program requires enrollment and the purchase of a Reduced Fare ID Card. Visit capmetro.org/RFID for details on eligibility and how to apply.

Customers with MetroAccess ID

MetroAccess customers may ride fixed-route bus and rail services at the reduced rate. To receive reduced fares on bus or rail, tap the MetroAccess ID card at the target area on the farebox when you board the vehicle. MetroAccess monthly passes are valid for use on all Capital Metro bus and train services at no additional cost.

When using the MetroAccess shared-ride paratransit service (see page 28), qualified customers are charged a separate rate.

Ways To Pay

Capital Metro offers a pass purchasing option for every lifestyle. Buy passes in person, or even on the go!

Where to buy your pass*
- CapMetro App
- Online at capmetro.org
- Transit Store
- On board buses
- MetroRail stations (cash only)
- Retail outlets
*Not all passes available at all locations. Visit capmetro.org/fares for full listing.

Take care of your pass
The magnetic strip on the back of your pass contains important information. If it’s damaged, the farebox won’t be able to read it, and you’ll have to pay your fare with cash and get a replacement pass at the Capital Metro Transit Store in downtown Austin.
